

WCET envisions a future where high-quality digital learning fosters success for educators and learners.

Become part of the WCET Community.

WCET makes the complexities of digital learning understandable and actionable for our cooperative of higher education institutions, organizations, and businesses.

What is WCET?

WCET, the WICHE Cooperative for Educational Technology, is the leader in the practice, policy, and advocacy of digital learning in higher education. WCET is a member-driven nonprofit that brings together higher education organizations and companies to advance digital learning for student access and success.

WCET helps member organizations improve digital learning for all learners by focusing on:

- Community
WCET members cooperatively share solutions and lessons learned in implementing digital learning innovations.
- Policy
WCET analyzes and interprets higher education policy for institutions supporting digital learning instruction and use.
- Practice
WCET shares promising and evidence-based practices for institutions supporting digital learning instruction and use.

WCET helps your organization thrive in a rapidly changing world.

By joining WCET, your institution or organization gains access to several key advantages:

- A deep knowledge of policy and timely interpretation of regulations and policies affecting digital learning in higher education,
- A focus on showcasing digital learning practices that improve the lives of learners, faculty, and staff, and lead to improved success.
- A dedicated community of peers committed to having a real impact in higher education.

Everyone in your organization is entitled to benefits.

Maximize your investment by joining WCET and the State Authorization Network. WCET members receive a significant discount on SAN membership dues. Learn more about the value of joining WCET and SAN:
